

THE DAILY STAR

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 23
LARGEST CIRCULATION IN THE CITY.

For the next 24 hours clear or fair, and rising temperature.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The Turner Society celebrated their twenty-seventh anniversary yesterday. The Bethel Sunday-school yesterday afternoon was attended by 2,680 scholars.

St. Phillips' P. E. Church, Twenty-fifth ward, was dedicated yesterday afternoon.

One hundred and eighteen deaths in the city last week—thirty-nine of these from small-pox.

Archbishop Purcell yesterday dedicated the new chapel of St. Joseph's, on the Reading road.

The Women's Christian Temperance Union held a social this evening at their rooms on Vine street.

When buying your Thanksgiving turkey and "don't forget the Home of the Friendless, No. 235 Court street.

Gus Kresling, while assisting at the ringing of the ponderous bell of St. John's Catholic Church, yesterday, had one of his fingers mashed.

Work on the coffee-dam for the main pier of the Ohio river bridge for the Southern railroad has been suspended on account of the overflow.

Contributions for a Thanksgiving dinner for the aged inmates of the Widows' Home may be left at Mrs. W. H. Proctor's, 297 Race street, or at the Home.

Vine St. Congregational Church was filled last evening by an audience attracted by the service of song. A similar service will be held on Thanksgiving day.

A Temperance lecture was delivered yesterday evening at St. Paul's P. E. church, by Miss Willard, of Chicago, instead of the usual sermon and evening service.

The St. Cecilia Mannerchor celebrated its eighth anniversary yesterday. To-night the Society give an entertainment and ball at their hall, corner of Court and Elm.

Uncle Jim Homer, of the Garden of Eden (or rather the keeper of the Shelter-house in Eden Park), has lost his official head—discharged on the score of public economy.

Rev. Mr. McGivney, a young and talented Jesuit priest, is preaching a mission at St. Xavier church. His theme last evening was "Virginity." Next Sunday evening he will speak on "Justification."

Will that police officer, on the corner of Fourth and Race streets, ever stop buying chestnuts for his little boy, without paying for them? We advise that chestnut vendor to remove from that stand.

The Cumminsville Orphan Asylum Committee have secured Exposition Hall from the 24th of December to the 31st of January, inclusive, in which to give their entertainments for the Orphans' benefit.

At ARKHEIT HALL this evening a meeting of retail merchants whose business is interfered with by the sale in the daily public market of articles that have no relation to the proper business of the market, will be held.

CHARLES DUNHAM, indicted for embezzling the funds of his employers, was tried Saturday, and the jury disagreed, eight of them being of the opinion that he was sane, and four that he was insane. The case will be tried again.

The Home Building Association No. 3, which met at the corner of Eighth and Freeman, has suspended. Each member will lose from fifteen to twenty percent of his deposits. The cause of the collapse has not as yet been made plain to the deluded members.

DEPUTY COLLECTOR HIGDON is to be investigated on charges preferred by Special Agents Gavitt and Loney. It is charged that "he has been persistently and offensively zealous in denouncing as groundless and oppressive various proceedings and actions for forfeiture pending in the United States Court at Cincinnati."

The managers of the Mt. Adams Inclined Plane have resolved to push it to completion, and have remodelled the boiler-house and depot. The engine-house has been torn down, and that tall stack will fall next. The foundation for the depot at the foot of the hill is ready for the superstructure. The cars will be running by the first of the new year.

The lady managers of the Cincinnati Orphan Asylum appeal again to the public to remember the orphans on Thanksgiving day. Provisions or money sent to the following places will be received thankfully: The Asylum, Mt. Auburn; Mrs. S. M. Hinsdale, 394 West Seventh street; Mrs. E. J. Fink, 94 West Eighth street; Mrs. J. R. Wright, East Walnut Hill.

AN ALARM of fire was sounded shortly after twelve o'clock last night from Box 39, caused by the burning of a two-story frame dwelling on Celestial street, Mt. Adams, near the Inclined Railway depot. The house was owned and occupied by Mr. Jordan, a paper-box manufacturer, and is a total loss. The fire was the only engine able to make the steep ascent of the hill. The loss of Mr. Jordan will probably amount to $1,500. Cause unknown.

AT THE corner of Fourth and Elm streets there has been put down an automatic arrangement for turning the car track switch, consisting of gearing attached to a platform balanced on a pivot between the rails, and is worked by the weight of the car horses directed to either one side or the other as the frog of the switch is to be turned. It is worked by the tread of the horse, does not retard the car, causes the horses no extra exertion, is no obstruction to the street, does away with the services of switch tenders and requires no more attention than curves. The invention, which has been in use some time in the Eastern cities, is called "Johnson's Automatic Switch."

SOMETIMES a cold will not yield to ordinary remedies, because of the severe inflammation of the delicate lining of the tubes through which the air we breathe is distributed to the lungs. This condition produces Pain and Soreness, Difficulty of Breathing, Hoarseness, Cough, Hectic Fever, and a Spitting of Blood, Matter or Phlegm, finally exhausting the strength of the patient, and developing very serious disease. Dr. Jayne's Expectorant seldom fails to remove these symptoms, by relieving the lungs of all obstructing matter, and healing all soreness. Pleurisy, Asthma and Bronchitis are likewise cured by this standard remedy, and the reputation it has maintained for so many years affords the best guaranty of its merit.

The very worst kind of an uncles-aunt-uncle.

St. Cecilia.

Yesterday at the Cathedral the feast of St. Cecilia was commemorated, and a very large crowd was in attendance. Mozart's Twelfth Mass was rendered by special request. Mr. Helmecamp's interpretation of Et Incarnatus Est produced a marked effect upon the attentive audience.

Personal.

Mr. M. Raidy, a Louisville tobaccoist, is at the St. James.
W. T. Pate, from Ironton, Ohio, and well known among the whiskey dealers is registered at the Madison.
W. D. Kuley, one of the most prominent pig-iron dealers of Fairport, Ontario, is in the city, stopping at the Madison House.

Levi Williams and Kate Morris.
Daniel Lehane and Bridget Mahoney.
William Hostmeyer and Henrietta Buger.

Emmet Dramatic Club.

At the Grand Opera-house last night the largest audience that has lately been seen there assembled to witness the above named excellent Club in their representation of the four-act religious drama of "Cecilia, the Virgin Martyr." The entertainment was for the benefit of the Cathedral school, and to say that it was a success does not give an adequate idea of the interest and delight manifested by that vast assemblage as they witnessed the excellent, and in some instances, the masterly interpretation of the different characters of the play by the actors.
The Emmet Club has already gained an enviable reputation for the style and vigor of their representations, and their last effort will not in the least detract from their already brilliant record.

Below we give the cast:

Cecilia, the Virgin Martyr..... Miss A. Metz
Agnes, an Orphan..... Miss E. Drum
Egeria, a Roman Lady..... Miss L. Babbitt
Quintilian, Father of Cecilia..... Jas. Stapleton
Tiberius, her Brother..... M. A. Wimsay
Valerian, her Betrothed..... D. Babbitt
Urban, the Roman Pontiff..... G. T. Connolly
Athenasius, his Deacon..... Jas. McCabe
Septimius, a Gambler..... J. B. Murphy
Almachius, Proconsul of Rome..... J. J. Molloy
Decius, an Apostate..... Thos. Halloran
Niger, a Numidian Slave..... Wm. T. Sheehan
Alexander Severus, the Emperor..... Jos. Boyle
Barabas Maximus, Lieut. of Urban..... F. Schuman
Wedding Guests, Flaminia, Citizens, Guards, Christians, Executioners, &c.

Under the able management of the following gentlemen every thing passed off smoothly in their respective departments: Prof. Jas. A. Abel, Stage Manager; Mr. Chas. Ray, Assistant Stage Manager; Messrs. Ed. Wilson and James Casey, Property-men.

Nevada's Young Women.

(From the Virginia Chronicle.)

Last week will be memorable in the life of a talkative Gold Hill miner, who has the happiness to board at a restaurant on Main street. In this restaurant, employed as a waitress, is a good-looking young woman. For reasons not known to the outside world the miner in question has allowed his tongue to wag somewhat freely upon the subject of this woman's character. She heard the gossip and learned its source, and on Wednesday evening of last week, just as the miner had relieved the agony of the restaurant man by finishing an interminable supper, he received an invitation from the handsome young woman to step into a back room. It was given smilingly, and the second-monger went unsuspectingly to his fate. She closed the door, and in reply to a questioning look, drew a six-shooter from her pocket, and requested him to get down on his knees. Being an obliging fellow, he did so instantly, and there he cheerfully confessed that he was a liar, and that the fair damsel before him was in all respects considerably superior to most angels. She let him go then, and there isn't a more taciturn man in Gold Hill now than that miner.

A Speculation.

A Michigan avenue grocer, having a bill of forty dollars against a sailor, and being unable to get the cash, finally squared accounts the other day by taking a bill of fifty dollars against a schooner known to him by name. He was on the wharves yesterday looking for her, and meeting an old captain he said:
"Can you tell me where the Boxer is?"
"Yes, sir."
"That's good," said the grocer, smiling warmly; "where is she?"
"Eleven miles out from Point aux Barques light-house, and two hundred and sixty feet down from the surface of the lake," was the reply.
The smile faded out of sight like a fox running through underbrush.

"THROW PHYSIC TO THE DOGS; FILL NOSE OF IT."

We do not in the least feel like blaming Macbeth for this expression of disgust; indeed we are rather inclined to sympathize with him. Even now-a-days most of the cathartics offered to the public are great, repulsive-looking pills, the very appearance of which is sufficient to "turn one's stomach." Had Macbeth ever taken Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets he would not have uttered those words of contempt. It is really encouraging, when one is ill, to find that a little sugar-coated Pellet, no larger than a grain of mustard, will as promptly produce the desired effect as a dose of great, nauseating pills. These little Pellets, unlike other cathartics, are really nature's physic. They do not debilitate, but tone and invigorate the system. No family should be without Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets.

JEWELRY, SILVERWARE, &c.

THE APPROACHING HOLIDAYS.

A very unpleasant feature incident to "Holiday shopping," when postponed to within a few days of Christmas, is that the throng and confusion becomes so great at the most attractive stores as to make it impossible for purchasers to receive proper attention.

In view of this, and in order to, at least in a degree, obviate the difficulty, DUHME & CO. have placed their sales-rooms in complete Holiday condition, thirty days earlier than in preceding years.

Manufacturers of Solid Silver and of fine Silver-plated Ware, have produced for the business of the current season, a line of useful and "pretty things," so exceptionally attractive as at a glance to suggest the thought, that the progress of the useful and decorative arts had about reached its limit, and when prices are noticed, the conviction will come, THAT THE BOTTOM IS REACHED.

Besides the great variety from their own workshops, DUHME & CO.'s stock comprises the choicest productions of all the prominent goldsmiths, silversmiths and platers in the United States.

The skill and taste displayed by the manufacturers of jewelry in this country is surprising.

The styles of jewelry for this present season are singularly elegant and tasteful, and are by no means expensive.

As to Table Plate, both solid and silver plated, there is no question but that our manufacturers excel those of any other country. In fact this class of goods form a new article of export.

DUHME & CO. have also just received their last importation of Paris and Vienna goods, clocks, bronze statuettes, jewel caskets, &c.

DUHME & CO.'s establishment, Fourth and Walnut, is really now a bazaar of beautiful things.

In making purchases early, you have an unbroken line to choose from, can make selections in a leisurely manner, avoid the throng and confusion, and, in fact, secure all the advantages of the situation, and at the same time put your mind in a condition for properly contemplating the festivities of the approaching Holiday season.
